UNINVITED GUEST TURNS WEDDING INTO A WILD NIGHT CHASE

John Sebek Causes a Commotion in All the Villages of Greenwich Township.

(Special to The Evening World.)

GREENWICH, Conn., Nov. 11.—All the villages of Greenwich Township are talking to-day of the strange adventure of John Sebek, who last evening turned an ordinary wedding into a riot and kept the inhabitants of the town awake with a chase that lasted for three hours and zigzagged over the entire township.

"The Convict's Revenge or The Uninvited Wedding Guest" has won the competition for the best title to the story.

Late yesterday afternoon Sebek finished a sentence of seven years in Wethersfield State Prison. Several commonplace ways of celebrating his release occurred to him, but they were all rejected in favor of a wedding which was to take place in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Smith of Mianus—the wedding of Miss Frances Smith to Mr. John Corbant.

When Sebek arrived at the wedding he wore the black suit which had been given him by the prison authorities, and the pallor of prison life still clung to him like an unpleasant memory. His decoration was purely of the spirit and was of the interior kind.

He lurched amiably into the throng of wedding guests and for some time escaped notice. But when he began insisting, at first gently, that he was the blushing bride and wanted to receive more attention—he got it.

WEDDING GUESTS LOCK DISTURBER IN COAL BIN.

Unable to find a constable, several of the wedding guests tackled Sebek. There was a great uproar until he was subdued and locked up in the coal bin. It was not until several hours later that the constable appeared and took Sebek in charge. By this time Sebek's face was painted with several layers of coal dust. Even the constable laughed as he slipped on the handcuffs.

But Sebek's submissive and darkened exterior was deceptive. He had fight left. When the constable stopped to telephone Police Headquarters Sebek started on a run. No one stopped him. The few wayfarers in Sebek's way beat a hasty retreat before the approach of the grimy, handcuffed creature, who looked to them like a demon.

For three hours Sebek ran—over the roads, the hills, the dales, the meadows, the back pastures of Mianus and the other villages of Greenwich township. For three hours the constable—gasping for breath, but game—gave chase. When Sebek had made a circuit of the entire township and was going around the second time, he spied a front porch, under which he squeezed, just as he heard the constable gaining on him. He managed to squirm with his head and body under the protection of the porch—but there he stuck. His feet remained outside, and they were not a detail to be escaped by the vigilant eye of the constable.

Summoning help from neighbors the constable got Sebek from under the porch. He is back in jail.

Seek American as Wreck Victim.

MELUN, France, Nov. 11.—E. A. Magee, or Maggie, an American is believed to have perished in the railroad wreck here a week ago, in which sixteen were killed. The man to-day was reported missing, and it was learned that he was a passenger on the wrecked express. Seven unidentified bodies of wreck victims were buried here to-day.

CHILD IS LONGING FOR LOST MOTHER; WANTS HER BACK.

MRS. E. K. WILDEGANS

From Erich K. Wildegans of No. 221 Riverside avenue, Scotia, New York, the Evening World has received a request that its readers help him reach his wife with an appeal that she return to him and their four-year-old daughter.

"Her parents and myself are worried sick," Mr. Wildegans writes, "and the little girl is longing for her."

Mrs. Wildegans started from Pittsburgh for this city June 17 last, and since then her husband and her parents have exhausted all their resources trying to find a trace of her. She is described as five feet three inches in height, slender, with dark brown hair and blue eyes; her right eyebrow is very heavy and black.

PIMPLES ON BODY ITCHED TERRIBLY

Broke Out Like Little Red Spots. Also on Face. Disfiguring, also Painful. Used Cuticura Soap and Ointment. Skin Now Clear.

80 Rapelye St., Brooklyn, N. Y.—"About four months ago pimples broke out on my forehead which pained me very much. They broke out like little red spots. From red the yellow heads came out on them and they pained terribly. I began scratching them and within two weeks my face was entirely filled with pimples and blackheads. After a while they came all over my body and itched terribly and when I would scratch them they would bleed. They were not only disfiguring but also painful. I was ashamed to walk on the street.

"I soon became discouraged. I read of Cuticura Soap and Ointment in the paper and sent for a sample which I used. The way I used the Cuticura Soap and Ointment was by putting Cuticura Ointment on the pimples with my finger and let it stay on for five minutes and then wash it off with Cuticura Soap and tepid water three times a day. After using two cakes of Cuticura Soap and a box of Cuticura Ointment it removed every pimple and blackhead in sight. Now my skin is clear and healthy." (Signed) Andrew Benevento, Nov. 5, 1912.

A single cake of Cuticura Soap (25c.) and box of Cuticura Ointment (50c.) are often sufficient when all else has failed. Sold throughout the world. Sample of each mailed free, with 32-p. Skin Book. Address post-card "Cuticura, Dept. T, Boston."

☞ Men who shave and shampoo with Cuticura Soap will find it best for skin and scalp.

A CLEAR HEAD

is needed to cope with the complex conditions of modern existence. Never has so much been demanded of men and women before the world gives them the meed of success towards which they strive. A steady brain and a far-seeing eye are the first requisites of Progress, and these are in a great measure the result of perfect health.

Many a willing worker lags behind in the race because of his physical condition. One can be bright, active and energetic—one can do one's full duty every day if one has good digestion and

AN ACTIVE LIVER

As soon as the digestive organs get out of order the general health declines. The joy of living vanishes, and one's efforts are hampered by lack of energy or vitality. There is an unfailing remedy for these digestive derangements and their attendant evils—one that can be absolutely depended upon.

Beecham's Pills have for over sixty years proved a specific for just such cases. Thousands have derived a lasting benefit from them, and so may you. It is a simple matter to keep your digestive organs in good condition. All you need do is to
